

Mario:
I think it's amazing how the Castle Borj is being restored to it's former glory by volunteers who are being educated in local skills and traditions.

The view from the terraces to Ptuj is wonderful and inspiring. We often come here to enjoy our picnic over the valley of the river Drava.

This track leads you directly through the wonderful forest up to the main entrance. The path will give you a real appreciation of the unique surrounding of Castle Borj.

